A photograph of a bright, modern children's room. The room features a large, rectangular rug with a blue and white geometric pattern. In the background, there is a blue armchair with two light-colored pillows. To the right of the chair is a small wooden table with two matching chairs. On the left side of the image, there is a low wooden storage unit with open shelves and a closed compartment. A window with white frames is visible on the right wall, letting in natural light. The overall aesthetic is clean and contemporary.
