THE HISTORY OF HAZE

A modern revival of Japan's oldest candle-making traditions

HAZE is a warosoku atelier based in Kawagoe, a historic city in Saitama known for its Edo-period craftsmanship. The brand preserves the ancient candle-making method tegake-seiho, where wax is applied by hand in repeated layers — a slow, meditative process that creates the signature thick, sculptural form of traditional Japanese candles.

The candles are made from haze, the fruit of the Japanese wax tree — the material that gives the brand its name. This natural wax burns with a large, bright, almost theatrical flame while producing very little soot, a hallmark of authentic warosoku.

PAULOWNIA BOX

ANICCA

- Containing Indian incense in its wax, this candle cleanses areas for spatial tranquility. It is said that the lacquered incense originated from Indian ascetics applying the incense on their bodies to remove impurities. Rubbing one's hands above the flame from this candle produces a similar experience.
- Ideal for meditation, quiet reading, gifting, and ceremonial moments
- Burn Time is 60 minutes per candle
- Made in Japan
- Contains 4 Candles, Matches, and a Burning Stand
- Minimum 4 per style
- MSRP: $70.00 Wholesale: $35.00

SAGE

- This Warosoku candle contains white sage and sacred herbs. These herbs have been used by Native American Indians in rituals and prayers since ancient times. The evaporated wax cleanses and purifies.
- Burn Time is 60 minutes per candle
- Made in Japan
- Contains 3 Candles, Matches and a Burning Stand
- Minimum 4 per style
- MSRP: $70.00 Wholesale: $35.00

PAULOWNIA BOX

SALT

- The salt used in these candles is made by collecting seawater during high tide on the day of the full moon in Futamiura, Ise City. This special salt is also dedicated to the Ise Jingu Shrine, where it is believed that the ebb and flow of the tides reflect the human cycle of life and death. Therefore, the salt is considered to be a purifying agent and when used in a candle, it becomes a wish for purification and vitality.
- Ideal for meditation, quiet reading, gifting, and ceremonial moments
- Burn Time is 60 minutes per candle
- Made in Japan
- Contains 4 Candles, Matches, and a Burning Stand
- Minimum 4 per style
- MSRP: $70.00 Wholesale: $35.00

HEMP

- Rasen candle evokes harmony. Made with a mixture of hemp charcoal powder produced in Miyakojima of Okinawa Prefecture. Hemp has been considered a sacred plant in Japan since ancient times and is used in many rituals to clear heaviness in the air. You can feel the cleansing effects of the hemp charcoal, and this is why this candle is recommended for purification and relaxation.
- Burn Time is 60 minutes per candle
- Made in Japan
- Contains 3 Candles, Matches and a Burning Stand
- Minimum 4 per style
- MSRP: $70.00 Wholesale: $35.00

PLANT PIGMENT

- These are Japanese candles colored with plant pigments. The wax is made from coconut palm fruit extracted from the tree itself, and the wick is made entirely from plant-based Japanese candles using the pulp of rush grass (zui). No fragrances are used at all, so it's easy to light at the dining table.
- Bright Red | Lithospermum erythrorhizon
- Yellow | Styphnolobium japonicum
- Indigo Blue | Persicaria tinctoria
- Light Green | Green tea
- Ideal for meditation, quiet reading, gifting, and ceremonial moments

COMPLIMENTARY PRODUCTS

- Candle Snuffer and Wick Trimmer is a multi-use tool commonly used in Japan to adjust and extinguish the flame or trim a long wick when the wax has burnt down. Over time and with frequent use, it will develop its own unique texture as it is made from unlaquered brass.
- Solid Unlacquered Brass
- MSRP: $55.00 Wholesale: $27.50

- This is a round ceramic candle holder that also functions as an incense holder. When opened, one side can be used to hold a candle, and the other to hold an incense stick.
- Because each item is handmade, there may be some differences in color and shape.
- Clay, Metal Pin
- MSRP: $29.00 Wholesale: $14.50
