

WILD CHAI

AMEICO

A hand is pouring a golden-brown liquid from a polished brass teapot into a clear glass cup. The teapot has a curved handle and a spout. The background is a lush green tea plantation with rows of tea bushes stretching into the distance under a soft, overcast sky. The overall tone is warm and traditional.

MODERN CHAI INSPIRED BY GENERATIONS

Wild Chai is a modern tea company rooted in traditional Indian chai culture and Ayurvedic wellness principles. Founded by two South Asian sisters in London, the brand was created to bring authentic chai back to the forefront through family recipes and generations of tea traditions. Wild Chai combines premium Assam tea with hand-selected spices including cardamom, ginger, cinnamon, clove, and turmeric to create blends centered around wellness, balance, and cultural authenticity.

The company is committed to ethical and sustainable sourcing, working directly with carbon-neutral farms in India while also supporting female farming communities through fair wages and partnerships. Their teas are handcrafted in small batches, vegan-friendly, and packaged using recyclable and biodegradable materials. Recognized for blending wellness, sustainability, and thoughtful design, Wild Chai has been featured in publications including Vogue and GQ.

RUBY FORT

A Hibiscus Herbal Tea Infusion for Relaxation

Ruby Fort is a Hibiscus herbal loose leaf tea infusion for relaxation.

- Naturally soothing helping to reduce bloat, supporting digestion and gut health.
- Natural sweetness balanced by a tangy, floral flavor, naturally caffeine-free.
- Wonderfully calming, perfect for relaxing day or night.
- Nothing Added: No fillers, flavorings or sugars — just pure, functional ingredients.

Ruby Fort blend is a vibrant herbal blend of loose leaf tea featuring hibiscus flowers, Ayurvedic herbs, and cooling spices. Perfect for winding down after a busy day, it's packed with antioxidants to nourish your body and mind. Enjoy it as a soothing tea ritual or a refreshing iced infusion.

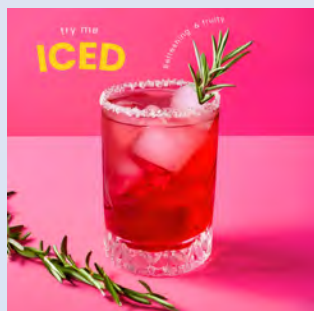

Supports Digestion and Gut Health: Fennel and liquorice root help soothe the digestive system, reduce bloating, and balance Agni (digestive fire). In Ayurveda, these herbs support gut harmony and nutrient absorption.

Cools and Balances Excess Heat: Hibiscus and lemongrass have cooling properties that help pacify Pitta dosha, reducing internal heat and inflammation while refreshing the body and mind.

Naturally Sweet and Nourishing: Liquorice root, a natural Rasayana, supports adrenal health and hydration, while fennel promotes gentle detoxification. This blend helps maintain balance, vitality, and overall well-being.
